

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Susan Haigh, who lives her life with generosity, gratitude, humility, and compassion, has devoted her career to building bright futures for families across the Twin Cities Metropolitan Area; and
- WHEREAS: Susan has advanced our region and our world by leveraging the power of partnerships, developing future leaders, and tirelessly working towards justice for all; and
- WHEREAS: As Chief Deputy Ramsey County Attorney, Susan was general counsel to the Ramsey County Board of Commissioners, oversaw operations in the county attorney's office, and participated in decisionmaking and communications for complex legal cases; and
- WHEREAS: As a member of the Ramsey County Board of Commissioners, Susan improved the lives of people living in poverty and living with disabilities and oversaw infrastructure initiatives; and
- WHEREAS: As Chair of the Metropolitan Council, Susan oversaw the adoption of a thirty-year regional plan and a housing policy plan, major investments in our cities and communities, and the opening of the Green Line Light Rail Transit Line; and
- WHEREAS: As CEO of Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity, Susan committed to addressing racial gaps in homeownership with the launch of a historic strategic plan; and
- WHEREAS: Hundreds of families and thousands of children live in safe, stable homes where they learn, grow, and achieve their dreams because of Susan's leadership; and
- WHEREAS: Susan's legacy of innovation, commitment to partnerships, and passion for justice will live on and grow with each generation; and
- WHEREAS: The Twin Cities region and the State of Minnesota have been improved because of Susan's decades of servant leadership.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, May 22, 2018, as:

SUSAN HAIGH DAY

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 18th day of May.
