

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Many brave men and women have answered the call to defend our nation and the values and freedoms for which we stand; and

WHEREAS: Durable and sustainable peace is made possible, in part, through the efforts of our military members, both past and present, and their families, forging a better future for our nation and the world; and

WHEREAS: Veterans, active duty service members, and military families deserve our immense gratitude for their sacrifice and commitment; and

WHEREAS: The freedoms we enjoy today would not be possible without their bravery, pride, courage, and sacrifice.

WHEREAS: Minnesotans express gratitude for the devotion of the Armed Forces and their family members to our state and nation; and

WHEREAS: More than 300 cities, counties, businesses, and non-profits have joined Minnesota's "Beyond the Yellow Ribbon" program since 2008, and are now providing community support and employment assistance to veterans and military families; and

WHEREAS: It is appropriate to set aside this day to thank those who undertake the great responsibility of defending our liberties and protecting democracy; and in the State of Minnesota.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, August 28, 2018, as:

MILITARY APPRECIATION DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 27th day of August.

GOVERNOR
