

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Minnesota's veterans have fought to defend our nation's freedom and provide others around the world the same opportunity to live self-determined and fulfilling lives; and
- WHEREAS: As an increasing number of veterans return home from present conflicts, often carrying the scars and wounds of war, the work to help them transition to civilian life is becoming increasingly important; and
- WHEREAS: It is our collective duty to help our servicemen and women regain their lives at home and secure the blessings of liberty that they have fought so hard to protect for ourselves and all Americans; and
- WHEREAS: The Disabled American Veterans' "Community of Heroism Week" is an opportunity to recognize the efforts of the many individuals who give their time and energy to help our nation's heroes as they return home.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of July 22 – 26, 2013, as:

COMMUNITY OF HEROISM WEEK

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 24th day of July.
