

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: The International Association of Insurance Professionals (IAIP) has attained a record of professional achievement and dedicated service to Minnesotans, and is deserving of public recognition and commendation; and
- WHEREAS: Founded in 1940, by 39 women, representing 17 regional insurance clubs, the IAIP has grown remarkably; and
- WHEREAS: The IAIP is composed of 275 local organizations, totaling approximately 7,000 members, all of whom are employed in various fields of the insurance industry; and
- WHEREAS: The main purpose of this highly effective organization is to encourage and foster educational programs designed to broaden the knowledge and understanding of the insurance field and to cultivate increasing friendship, loyalty, and desire for service among its members; and
- WHEREAS: It is of tremendous benefit to the members of the IAIP to have the opportunity to associate with other industry professionals, enabling them to share problems, solutions, and experiences; and
- WHEREAS: Within its code of ethics, the IAIP includes a pledge of service that is honest, thorough, gracious, and professional, with a promise to perform in an honorable manner; and
- WHEREAS: This outstanding organization has been recognized as a vital resource by the Independent Insurance Agents of America, the American Association of Managing General Agents, the Insurance Institute of America, and the Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriters.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 19 – 25, 2013, as:

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF INSURANCE PROFESSIONALS WEEK in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 16th day of May.
