

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Minnesota Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) is a student leadership organization that empowers young women and men to be active leaders in their families, schools, and communities by addressing important personal, family, work, and societal issues; and
- WHEREAS: Minnesota FCCLA is celebrating 70 years of youth involvement in Family and Consumer Sciences; and
- WHEREAS: Minnesota FCCLA promotes personal growth and leadership development through Family and Consumer Sciences education, focusing on the multiple roles of family member, wage earner, and community leader; and
- WHEREAS: Members of FCCLA develop skills that are necessary in the home and workplace such as, goal setting, problem solving, decision making, and interpersonal communications; and
- WHEREAS: Minnesota FCCLA is a lead state agency for the 2016 Global Youth Service Day, which is an international service event observed in more than 135 countries around the world; and
- WHEREAS: Minnesota FCCLA, in this role, will lead children, teenagers, and young adults from across the state to make a difference in their communities and to make a life-time commitment to service; and
- WHEREAS: Minnesota's future depends on our youth's unique knowledge, perspectives, and creativity as they lead service, advocacy, and philanthropy activities today, and for years to come.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim April 14-16, 2016, as:

MINNESOTA FCCLA DAYS

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 13th day of April.
