

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: The National Youth Science Camp was established in West Virginia in 1963; and
- WHEREAS: Each year, the Governor of West Virginia invites the Governor of Minnesota to select two graduating high school seniors to represent Minnesota at the National Youth Science Camp; and
- WHEREAS: The National Youth Science Foundation was established to support and enhance the National Youth Science Camp by providing scholarships for participating students; and
- WHEREAS: The National Youth Science Camp is a vital, national program that supports and encourages educational opportunities and careers in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of July 2013 as:

NATIONAL YOUTH SCIENCE CAMP MONTH

in the State of Minnesota, and congratulate the National Youth Science Foundation on the 50th Anniversary of the National Youth Science Camp.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 27th day of February.

GOVERNOR

SECRETARY OF STATE
