

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Older Minnesotans are active contributors to their communities as engaged citizens, friends, neighbors, and volunteers; and
- WHEREAS: Older Minnesotans, through their intergenerational relationships, help create strong and livable communities for a lifetime; and
- WHEREAS: Society is enhanced by older adults aging and living well in their communities; and
- WHEREAS: The Senior LinkAge Line One Stop Shop for Older Minnesotans is available to provide information to help older adults maximize their independence and connect them to volunteer and job opportunities; and
- WHEREAS: The State of Minnesota remains committed to helping older workers find opportunities and resources. To this end, the Minnesota Board on Aging is holding an Older Workers Summit in May 2013.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of May 2013 as:

OLDER AMERICANS MONTH

in the State of Minnesota, and urge citizens to take time this month to honor older adults who volunteer and the family members, professionals, and volunteers who care for older adults.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 11th day of April.
