

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Founded a century ago in 1912, Sacred Heart School in East Grand Forks, Minnesota, offers daycare through twelfth grade education; and
- WHEREAS: Sacred Heart School strives to nurture and embolden students in their mental, physical, and spiritual growth; and
- WHEREAS: Sacred Heart School has a graduation rate of 100 percent, and 90 percent of its students go on to attend college or take college level classes; and
- WHEREAS: Students of Sacred Heart School actively give back to their communities with service projects benefiting nursing homes, homeless missions, non-profits, and charities at home and abroad; and
- WHEREAS: Sacred Heart School teaches students the fundamentals of discipline and self-awareness, so they may understand how their individual actions stimulate positive change in the world. As a result, graduates of Sacred Heart have provided leadership in local, state, and national endeavors; and
- WHEREAS: Sacred Heart School's dedication to education and service benefits not only the lives of its students, but also the entire community; and
- WHEREAS: Sacred Heart School will celebrate 100 years of education and service in East Grand Forks from August 2-5, 2012.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim August 2-5, 2012 as:

SACRED HEART SCHOOL CENTENNIAL DAYS

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 3rd day of July.
