

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Minnesota's youth workers have a profound impact on the lives of children each and every day; and
- WHEREAS: Youth workers are a diverse group comprised of all ages and job levels, each committed and dedicated to the personal, social, and educational development of our next generation; and
- WHEREAS: Youth workers have committed themselves to making our state stronger through their steadfast dedication, energy, and belief in Minnesota's youth; and
- WHEREAS: Minnesota benefits from an abundance of individuals who selflessly dedicate their lives to helping raise tomorrow's leaders, and whose work of the hand, heart, and mind is done without expectation of recognition, but with the belief that every child deserves to thrive.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim May 2, 2013, as:

THANK A YOUTH WORKER DAY

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 2nd day of May.
