

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The Anderson Center at Tower View in Red Wing—Minnesota's largest artist community and one of the most respected residential arts facilities in the United States—is celebrating the restoration of the historic Tower View estate; and

WHEREAS: The Anderson Center plays a vital and dynamic role upholding Minnesota's heritage in the arts by providing a unique and historic setting conducive to the creation and promotion of work by artists, writers, and scholars; and

WHEREAS: The Anderson Center plays a vital and dynamic role in the development of Minnesota's cultural and artistic life, acting as a unique venue where artists on the local, state, and national levels can showcase their imaginative landscapes; and

WHEREAS: The restoration of the Tower View estate presents a unique opportunity to celebrate the Anderson Center's commitment to nurturing a healthy arts community, cultivating skills in the arts and art appreciation, and promoting the vital role the arts play on local, state, and national levels.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim September 29, 2012 as:

ANDERSON CENTER DAY

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 24th day of September.
