

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: The needs of the people of Minnesota are great: jobs, the safe return of our troops; and health, hope, and reconciliation for all; and
- WHEREAS: The assets of our state are abundant: rich farm land, beautiful lakes, strong families, and an unmatched heritage of hard work, sacrifice, patriotism, innovative ideas, and community service; and
- WHEREAS: We desire an inclusive, broadminded, and tolerant society; and
- WHEREAS: From the earliest days of our nation, through war, depressions, and natural disasters, to the events of September 11, the conflicts overseas, and loss of our fallen heroes in the military and law enforcement, our people have turned to prayer to seek wisdom, guidance, and strength, and to express thanks; and
- WHEREAS: The Congress of United States has designated the first Thursday in May as National Day of Prayer; and
- WHEREAS: The theme of the 63rd Annual National Day of Prayer is "One Voice United in Prayer".

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Thursday, May 1, 2014, as:

DAY OF PRAYER

in the state of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the state of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 27th day of March.

GOVERNOR

SECRETARY OF STATE
