

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

WHEREAS: In Minnesota, falls are the leading cause of injury-related death and injuries requiring hospitalization or treatment, with the vast majority of these occurring among older Minnesotans; and

WHEREAS: Falls contribute significantly to depression, loss of mobility, and loss of functional independence among older adults; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota has the fourth-highest death rate for unintentional falls in the United States; and

WHEREAS: Factors contributing to falls include decreased lower body strength, balance, and endurance; complications from chronic conditions; use of medications; weakened vision; and unsafe home and community conditions; and

WHEREAS: Many falls and injuries from falls can be prevented; and

WHEREAS: Injuries from falls are a community health problem, and organizations, agencies, health care providers, and individuals are collaborating to raise awareness, commission research, and provide resources to prevent falls and help those who suffer from complications following a fall.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, September 23, 2015, as:
