

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Financial capability provides individuals, families, and communities in the state of Minnesota the foundation for financial security; and

WHEREAS: Empowering and educating Minnesotans from kindergarten through retirement on the necessary financial skills needed throughout different life stages involves the partnership of the educational system, non-profit organizations, private enterprise, and local and state government; and

WHEREAS: That state of Minnesota and its financial capability partners, including the Jump$tart Coalition, bring together the organizations and individuals dedicated to providing financial education on the topics of saving, budgeting, and protecting consumers through the prevention of fraud; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota's economy prospers when its citizens are empowered to make smart financial decisions and avoid financial pitfalls for themselves and their families; and

WHEREAS: The efforts of the impressive network of non-profit organizations, state and local government programs, private enterprise, financial institutions, and the Minnesota Jump$tart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy volunteers, should be recognized.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of April 2014, as:

FINANCIAL CAPABILITY MONTH

in the state of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the state of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 31st day of March.
