

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: The concept of democracy, in which the supreme power to govern was vested in the people, was developed by the ancient Greeks; and
- WHEREAS: The Founding Fathers of the United States drew heavily on the political experience and philosophy of ancient Greece in forming our representative democracy; and
- WHEREAS: Greek soldiers were with the United States Marines on the shores of Tripoli in the military operations memorialized in the United States Marine Hymn; and
- WHEREAS: Many Americans fought alongside the Greeks in their fight for Greek independence, while stirring speeches by President James Monroe and Daniel Webster led the Congress to send funds and supplies to aid the Greeks in the struggle for freedom; and
- WHEREAS: Greece is one of only three nations in the world beyond the former British Empire that has been allied with the United States in every major international conflict in the twentieth century, including World War I, World War II, Korea, Vietnam, Desert Storm, and the Balkans; and
- WHEREAS: Greece played a major role in the World War II struggle to protect freedom and democracy through bravery as was shown in the historic Battle of Crete and in Greece, presenting the Axis land war with its first major setback; and
- WHEREAS: The government of Greece has declared its solidarity with the American people and has pledged to back efforts to combat and eradicate terrorism in the aftermath of terrorist attacks on the United States of America; and
- WHEREAS: March, 25, 2012, marks the 191st anniversary of the beginning of the revolution that freed the Greek people from the Ottoman Empire.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim March 25, 2012 as:

GREEK INDEPENDENCE DAY

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 23rd day of March.

GOVERNOR

SECRETARY OF STATE
