

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: The American Payroll Association and its 23,000 members have launched a nationwide public awareness campaign that honors payroll professionals for their hard work paying wages, reporting worker earnings, and withholding federal employment taxes; and
- WHEREAS: Payroll professionals in Minnesota play a key role in maintaining the economic health of the state, carrying out such tasks as paying into the unemployment insurance system, providing information for child support enforcement, carrying out tax withholding, and reporting and depositing funds; and
- WHEREAS: Payroll professionals play an increasingly important role in ensuring the economic security of American families by helping to identify noncustodial parents and making sure they comply with their child support mandates; and
- WHEREAS: Payroll professionals have become increasingly proactive in educating both the business community and the public at large about the payroll tax withholding system; and
- WHEREAS: Payroll professionals meet regularly with federal and state tax officials to discuss improving compliance with government procedures and how compliance can be achieved at less cost to the government and businesses; and
- WHEREAS: Each year, the week in which Labor Day falls has been proclaimed National Payroll Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of September 1-5, 2014, as:

PAYROLL WEEK

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 25th day of August.
